SEAT GUIDE · FOR ADVISORY FIRMS

How do I choose the right seat?

Everyone at your firm can create meetings, run prep, work on the notes, and sync to your systems of record. What changes between seats is how far Mili goes beyond that — from answering questions and looking things up, to doing the work itself: researching a prospect, building a planning report, drafting the email, filling the form — and writing the result back into your systems. Support seats are typically free, so in most cases it is only the advisors and producers you are counting.

SEAT

Agents seat

PAID SEAT

Mili produces the work — research, planning reports, documents, email, forms — and writes the results back into your systems. Useful wherever someone carries the production work.

WHAT THIS SEAT IS USED FOR

Prospect research · Planning reports · Draft & send email · Documents & decks · Form filling · Financial modelling · Write to CRM · E-signature · Automations · Meeting prep · Client lookup · Notes & tasks

This seat includes every agent Mili offers — and each new one as we ship it, at no extra cost.

CAN DO

- Every specialised agent — planning reports, email drafting, research, scheduling, documents
- Writes back to your CRM and document drives from the chat window, plus e-signature
- Creates polished PDFs, decks, spreadsheets, and templates
- Builds and runs recurring automations
- Views meetings, builds prep, and works from the notes

STOPS AT

- Live notetaking — this seat isn't the one in the room
- Client insights and meeting analytics
- Firm branding on action plans

SEAT

Support seat

TYPICALLY FREE

Meetings, prep, and keeping records current, without Mili producing work. Useful for anyone who needs to be in Mili alongside the people it works for. Typically free, however many you add.

WHAT THIS SEAT IS USED FOR

Create meetings · Meeting prep · Prep documents · Update CRM from notes · Notes & tasks · Compliance

CAN DO

- Views and creates meetings, and builds prep and prep documents
- Uses client and document context inside meeting prep
- Updates the CRM from a meeting's notes page
- Shared notes, tasks, and full compliance controls

STOPS AT

- The chat window — this seat works inside prep, not by asking
- Live notetaking
- Specialised agents and generated documents
- Client insights, meeting analytics, and automations

THE FLOOR

What every seat gets

None of this depends on the seat someone holds, and none of it counts against a usage limit.

Meetings

View and create meetings, and build prep and agendas.

Prep documents

Ask about the documents selected in the meeting-prep view.

CRM updates from notes

Push updates into your CRM from a meeting's notes page — on every seat.

Notes and tasks

Shared notes and tasks across the firm.

Connections hold

Your integrations stay connected on every seat; what a seat can do with them still applies.

Never metered

Meeting prep, notes, transcripts, agendas, and client snapshots are always free.

USAGE

The only thing that's metered

Seats where Mili does the work — Full and Agents — carry a monthly credit allowance. Nothing else in the platform draws it down.

What spends a credit

A successful Office ask, or an automation run. Follow-on questions to that same ask don't spend another — one credit covers the exchange, not each turn in it.

How many

100 credits a month per person on Full and Agents seats.

What never spends one

Meeting prep, notes, transcripts, agendas, and client snapshots — plus anything that fails or comes back empty. These are free on every seat.

Meeting and Support seats

No allowance, because there's nothing on those seats that draws any credit.

APPENDIX

Every capability, seat by seat

The complete list, for anyone who needs to check a specific case.

REFERENCE

How it's billed

You choose seats, person by person. Behind that, we group seats into two plans — it decides how your account is invoiced, not what anyone can do.

Mili Accelerate

An account made up of Meeting and Support seats only.

Mili Operate

Any account with at least one Full or Agents seat. All four seat types can be mixed.

You don't need to pick one

Adding a single Full or Agents seat moves the account to Operate automatically. Nobody's access changes when it does — each person keeps exactly what their own seat allows. Support seats stay complimentary either way.

Admin, Admin-lite, and Member are account roles, set separately from seats. They control who can administer the account, not what Mili can do for someone.
